ESSAYS TO LIGHTEN A TOUGH DAY

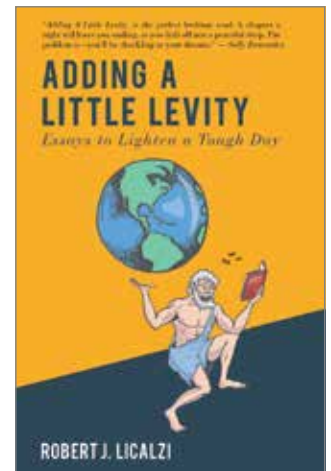

ROBERT J. LICALZI

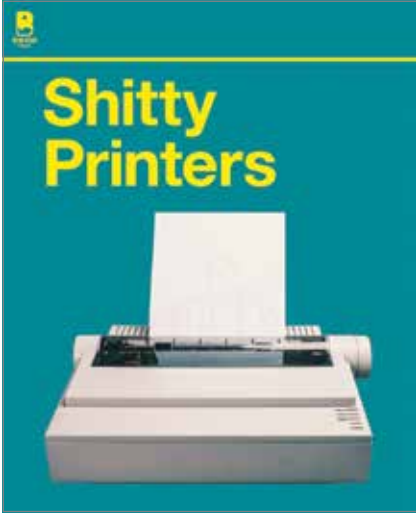

Make someone smile and you have done well; make someone laugh out loud and you have achieved something greater. This witty, wry collection of essays takes the reader from a blue-collar boyhood in Queens, across the seas to Japan and Puerto Rico and back again. Reality and hyperbole collide in tales of life's universal and painful experiences – the big interview, meeting your future in-laws and travel debacles galore – where to 'add a little levity' is to survive and thrive!

SHITTY PRINTERS

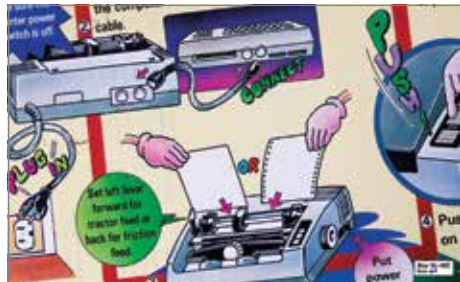

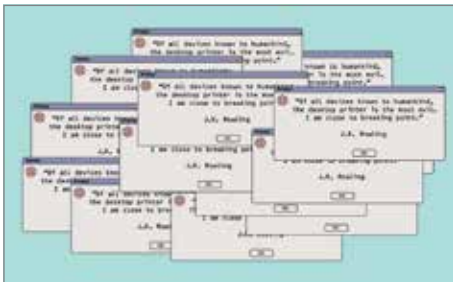

J P GARRIGUES

From the first consumer inkjet to more modern monstrosities, Shitty Printers breaks down the worst offenders of our home offices. Perhaps as payback for forming a nonsensical dichotomy, these printers couldn't just work. Not without a fight, at least. They insisted on screeching at plane-like decibels, plopping out pages at an excruciatingly slow pace, streaking only the most important documents, and running out of ink when you know you JUST refilled the cartridge. Each printer in this book is beautifully photographed and ruthlessly torn to shreds as their individual strengths, weaknesses and charisma are scored on sliding scales born from relatable frustration.
