WHEN WE WERE YOUNG

MAGICAL FILMS THAT MADE US DREAM

HB · 112 pages · 230 x 170 mm

£17.99

Whether adventure, comedy, action or fantasy, the films of the 80s (late 70s and early 90s included) are simply magical. It doesn't matter if some have aged better than others, films like The Goonies, Indiana Jones, Ghostbusters, Rocky, etc. were created not only for financial gain, but also with tremendous passion, conveying a mystique that is difficult to describe, and which only those who lived through that period can fully appreciate. When We Were Young does not include all of them (that would be impossible), but it does offer a carefully chosen and representative selection. And if you were terrified by the Gremlins, if you learned from Mr. Miyagi, if you cried when little Elliot said goodbye to E.T. or when Thelma & Louise started flying in their convertible, we invite you to embark on this nostalgic tour of superb illustrations and alternative posters by world-class artists, accompanied by curiosities and legendary quotes from the best movies of a wonderful era.

Steven Spielberg
INDIANA JONES

Nears before its premiere in 1981, George Lucas and Steven Spielberg created the most famous character ever played by Harrison Ford. The character has become a common denominator, and if we are asked to think of a classic adventure film, the first thing that comes to mind is any of the films starring this archeologist and professor from Marshall University.

Indy is an average man with firm convictions, committed to his struggle for a better world. Plain and unadorned in appearance, wearing his characteristic hat and with his faithful whip in his hand, he is capable of overcoming his traumatic fear of snakes. All this has made him one of the most important characters in popular culture, and the beginning of the most successful film series of all time.

Martin Brest
BEVERLY HILLS COP

The unmistakable synthesizer music of the main theme of the soundtrack plays in representation of a whole generation, the whole of it not only familiar but actually an anthem. Meanwhile the latest entry of Superintendant Axel Foley keeps learning but at all in all is a splendid.

Original, Guyver, Stallone was to have played the lead role, but he turned it down because it was a film with humorous undertones. At the time, Eddie Murphy was a well-known comedian, and he did not hesitate to accept the most important role of his life, Axel Foley, who gets his unique personal charm and unorthodox methods managed to find out everything he wants to know.

STRANGER THINGS TRIBUTE

EVA MINGUET

HB · 112 pages · 230 x 170 mm
£17.99

Stranger Things is characterised by having the heart and essence of the mythical series and films of the 80s, from The Goonies, Ghostbusters, The Neverending Story, Back to the Future, and so many more, which were authentic icons for that generation. The series has the same breath of fresh air as the past that it wants to reflect, since the first episode it has managed to captivate our hearts. From its aesthetics, music on tape cassettes, arcades, the first malls... A brilliant series that explores the crossroads between the ordinary and the extraordinary.

THE ABC'S OF TIDYING UP

NATALIA GECCI

HB · 144 pages · 230 x 170 mm
£18.99

This book is not a decoration handbook and does not address so-called good or bad taste when it comes to interior design, neither does it seek to deliver a lecture on the latest trends. This book invites the reader to see their home with fresh eyes. It also invites them to carry out an exercise in introspection, to understand how they want to live and what they want from their home. In these pages you will find side-by-side the advice of Marie Kondo and the teachings of Hideko Yamashita through Danshari (a Japanese approach to tidying up).

SCRAP! THE BOOK

ADELA SILVESTRE

HB · 108 pages · 230 x 170 mm
£18.99

My name is Adela Silvestre, but as soon as the Instagram homepage welcomes me I'm magically transformed into The Mint Feather, a crafter who loves scrapbooking, Home Decor and product photography. There, I explore all kinds of handicrafts or fields of art. I can think of I absolutely go crazy for wood and cardboard techniques. The noise of my electric screwdriver is my white noise. Collage making is my favorite art expression and decorating my house is my personal therapy. Without a doubt, what I most enjoy is looking at random objects and thinking how I can transform them into something completely different and creative. Are you joining the party?

CONTAINER & PREFAB HOUSING

SUSTAINABLE AND AFFORDABLE ARCHITECTURE

HB · 144 pages · 230 x 170 mm

£19.99

The making of architectural projects made partly or totally from recycled freight containers is getting more and more common, and added to this, the need for a more sustainable construction is also becoming increasingly necessary. Lots of architects and designers have reinvented the prefabricated house with new materials and construction techniques, which are easy to transport, some even able to be built in a single day in surprising locations. This book includes 16 selected projects, all developed with graphics, exterior and interior images, plans, elevations, sections, construction details and other useful specifications.

LOW COST

NATURAL RESOURCES IN ARCHITECTURE

HB · 144 pages · 230 x 170 mm

£19.99

One objective of this book is to study the budget for each individual project, as far as possible, in terms of construction methods and materials, energy and sustainability factors, in order to carry out a global evaluation. In effect, a means of evaluating interesting sources of information relevant to the quality of life, the economy, eco-system and other minor considerations. Whether partially or totally prefabricated, all of the designs illustrate the inherent capacity of many architects to design properties which are more appealing and intelligent, sustainable, economical, with low maintenance costs and reduced energy consumption and, it goes without saying, more agreeable living accommodation. All of this demonstrates the determination to create something unique within a very tight budget.
